BIOGRAPHY

Vincenzo Delli Noci I was born in Latiano (Brindisi - Italy) and I started my musical studies with the Maestro Antonio Baldari at the age of 10 years.

In 1978, I enrolled in at the State Musical Conservatory "N.Piccinni" in Bari and I graduated in 1985 with the highest honors under the guidance of the Maestro Adriano Cirillo.

I then perfected my musical preparation with the Maestro Roberto Cappello.

I won various piano competitions at the international and national levels.

I started a brilliant concert career as a soloist in various chamber and orchestra formations with the enthusiastic approval of the public and critics alike.

In 1990, I was invited to a series of concerts in Switzerland and in 1991, I started I began a tour that allowed me to perform in the major European cities such as Zurich, Vienna, Prague and Munich.

In September 2001 I have published a CD (label VITAMINIC) with music of Granados and Albeniz.

On March, this year, guest of Iberian & Latin American Music Society, he made his debut in London with a programme completely dedicated to the Spanish music.

In course of publication a new CD with the most famous waltzes by J.Strauss , transcribed by the greatest piano virtuosos of twentieth century.

I have also been a regular guest of the major Italian concert organizations and a piano teacher in the State Secondary Schools.
